Andy Day is fascinated by all creatures - big and small, existing or extinct. And now, visiting theatres across Australia during the September and October school holidays, he is on a mission to thrill and entertain in a brand-new live adventure. He'll have some help too - from familiar faces, new friends and hopefully you!

"I've been to Australia many times on my adventures to see a thorny devil, a kangaroo, a koala and even back in time to see a muttaburrasaurus, but now it's time for my ultimate adventure - I'm heading down under with my brand-new live stage show, touring the country and meeting loads of lovely Australians. I can't wait!" Andy Day

Written and directed by Phil Gallagher (Mister Maker) this show is full of laughter, music, interactive games and lots of surprises. This family production will entertain everyone with its creature chaos and educational fun.

"I have had so many incredible experiences touring Mister Maker Live across Australia over the last few years. And now I can't wait to help bring Andy's brand-new stage show to life." Phil Gallagher

So, don't be a dozy dinosaur. Get your tickets now and join Andy on his first live Australian theatre tour. It promises to be a show of prehistoric proportions!
