

BBC Worldwide Press Office
BBC Worldwide Australia
Level 5, 6 Eden Park Drive, Macquarie Park NSW 2113

Monday 20 August, 2012

ALL NEW CRIME DRAMA ONLY ON UKTV FAN FAVOURITE CRIME & JUSTICE SEASON RETURNS THIS OCTOBER

Thrilling heists, troubled cops, eccentric ex-detectives and a quirky Douglas Adams' adaptation form the backbone of UKTV's Crime and Justice season, featuring Australian premieres and screening throughout October on Foxtel.

Inside Men (4 x 50) is a gripping drama about three employees of a security depot who plan and execute a multimillion pound cash heist. When manager John (Steven Mackintosh) catches two of his workers (Ashley Walters & Warren Brown) stealing money from the vault, they expect the worst. John convinces them to put back the money. After all, why risk everything for just £50,000 when there is £170 million pounds waiting to be taken?

An Australian premiere screening Sundays at 8:30pm from October 7; Inside Men is a study of how men behave when they step out of their comfort zones and cross that moral line. The Guardian called it, "A tense, knuckle-gnawing thriller".

Also new to Australian television is Falcón (2 x 120), Saturdays at 8.30pm from October 13. The Spanish city of Seville is the exquisite backdrop for this high-octane drama based on acclaimed crime writer Robert Wilson's series of international bestselling novels featuring flawed hero, Homicide Inspector Javier Falcón, played by Kiwi, Marton Csokas.

In The Blind Man of Seville, a gruesome murder leads Falcón to discover hidden truths about his father's secret past. In The Silent and the Damned, Falcón investigates two apparently unlinked crimes uncovering a conspiracy involving police corruption and the CIA. Beautifully shot and hauntingly atmospheric, Falcón is an adrenaline-fuelled drama of sin and redemption, and an inspired translation of a modern masterpiece from page to screen which also stars Kerry Fox, Emilia Fox and Hayley Atwell.

Tim Christlieb, Head of Programming and Production, BBC Worldwide Australasia said "The UKTV audience are passionate about British crime drama and we are absolutely committed to serving their passion by offering the best programming in the genre. Packaging up exciting new shows with our fan favourites in a season like Crime and Justice is a fantastic way of celebrating British creative excellence and giving the viewers exactly what they want - ensuring UKTV continues to be the Best @ British."

Olivia Williams and Darren Boyd star in Sophie Hannah's gripping psychological thriller about love, obsession, trust and betrayal in Case Sensitive: The Other Half Lives, Thursday 1 November at 8:30pm.

When Ruth Blacksmith's new partner, Aidan, reveals that he once hurt a woman called Mary Trelease, Ruth is deeply worried. She raises her concerns with Detective Sergeant Charlie Zailer who is intrigued. But when Charlie decides to call in at Ruth's house, she finds a disturbing scene. Ruth's ex-husband, Jason Blacksmith, has been murdered. Charlie and Detective Simon Waterhouse investigate the case and find themselves divided over motives and suspects.

The much-loved detective series, New Tricks, returns to UKTV as part of the Crime and Justice season. Among the cold crimes Detective Superintendent Sandra Pullman and her unconventional team of ex-detectives - Jack Halford, Brian Lane and Gerry Standing - crack in Series 7 of New Tricks, Mondays at 7:30pm from October 1, are the death of a boxer, the murder of a celebrated graffiti artist, the stabbing of a fashion designer and the suspicious suicide of a college professor. As usual, there are plot twists and red herrings galore, plus a bewildering number of suspects played by well-known guest stars.

Dirk Gently, a sharp and hilarious detective comedy drama starring Stephen Mangan and Helen Baxendale and based on the novel by Douglas Adams, will also screen on Fridays at 8:30pm from October 19.

Dirk Gently is the perpetually broke, eccentric and shambolic private detective who runs an agency based on the fundamental interconnectedness of all things. In this pilot episode Dirk is asked to investigate the disappearance of an old lady's cat – but, through the application of quantum mechanics, suspect hypnotism and a plate of biscuits, he uncovers a double murder, an unlikely business partner and a missing billionaire who will go to extraordinary lengths to right a terrible wrong.

ENDS

Linda Deubel, BBC Worldwide Australasia

T: +612 9744 4521 M: 0403 573 183 E: linda.deubel@bbc.com

Twitter : @lindadeubel

About BBC Worldwide Australasia

Australia is a priority territory for BBC Worldwide, focusing on growth across all five of its core businesses. In 2011/12, BBC Worldwide Australasia increased revenue by 9% on the previous year, generating AUS$140m. Based in Macquarie Park, Sydney, BBC Worldwide Australasia wholly owns five channels; UKTV, BBC Knowledge and CBeebies in Australia; UKTV NZ and BBC Knowledge NZ in New Zealand; and is responsible for the sales, promotion and distribution of World News which transmits in both countries. It distributes great British content from the BBC and other producers to all free-to-air and most subscription channels in Australia and New Zealand. BBC Worldwide Australasia has a joint venture company with ACP, Park Publishing, which publishes BBC-branded magazines in the territory. It works with partners to bring BBC Worldwide DVDs, digital apps, innovative products and live events to the local market, as well as offering advertising opportunities for the BBC's world renowned bbc.com news site and lonelyplanet.com. BBC Worldwide Australasia has recently launched the global BBC iPlayer in Australia.

About Channels

BBC Worldwide Channels is one of five BBC Worldwide businesses. Formed in 2005, the business' diverse portfolio of channel brands provides a global showcase for the best mix of British TV across factual, entertainment, children's and lifestyle programming. The company is the UK's leading international broadcaster, operating a network of localised channels that reach over 300 million homes in more than 100 countries around the world.

bbcworldwide.com

twitter.com/bbcwpress