DOCTOR WHO CHRISTMAS GIFT IDEAS

Just because the 50th Anniversary has passed, it doesn't mean the celebrations have to stop. Make this Christmas special with Doctor Who and treat yourself or a loved one to an array of exciting products ranging from stamps, clothing, coins, games and homeware, to the ultimate Doctor Who gift – the Sonic Screwdriver.

Fans of David Tennant's Tenth Doctor are in for a treat. In response to massive consumer demand, the Wand Company has released a Tenth Doctor Sonic Screwdriver Universal Remote Control. A faithful clone from David Tennant's own screen-used Tenth Doctor's Sonic Screwdriver, and crammed full of technology, this fully functioning gesture-based remote control looks, feels and works just like the original prop.

Australia Post has released a stamp pack featuring all of the Doctors and a selection of monsters. Great present for stamp collectors and Doctor Who fans alike. Available at Australia post retail outlets.

New Zealand Mint has struck the ultimate collectors set of silver coins that carry a coloured image of all 11 Doctors to have played the role since the series creation in 1963. The limited edition coin set comes packed in a 3D replica of the Doctor's fob watch and are legal tender for $1 in the South Pacific Island nation of Niue, making them an ideal gift for Doctor Who fans around the world.

There is a great range of men's apparel available at Jay Jays including the Eleventh Doctor T-shirt and female fans can cosplay in the TARDIS costume dress from Ikon Collectables.

For the home, Caprice has a range of Doctor Who Blue TARDIS cushions on offer and BBC Worldwide has released a special Doctor Who espresso box crockery set complete with matching saucers featuring Doctor Who icons on a bold colour background, the perfect companion for your morning cup of coffee.

Test your knowledge with Doctor Who Trivial Pursuit. The Doctor has graced our screens for over 50 years, but how much do you really know about the Time Lord and his adventures? With categories on aliens, stories, years and dates, companions, cast and crew, it's enough to challenge even the most knowledgeable fan.

Other products available include the 50th anniversary collectors edition trading cards from Banter Toys, a 2014 diary with images from series 7 from Mallon and a limited edition box set of prints from Impact posters.

Products are available from a range of stockists including the Doctor Who e-commerce site www.doctorwho50store.com.au, the Doctor Who pop up shop in Penrith, ABC shops, New Zealand Mint, Jay Jays, www.popcultcha.com.au and more.

About BBC Worldwide Australia & New Zealand

Australia & New Zealand (ANZ) is a priority territory for BBC Worldwide, focusing on growth across all its core business areas. Based in Macquarie Park, Sydney, BBC Worldwide ANZ wholly owns five channels: UKTV, BBC Knowledge and CBeebies in Australia; UKTV and BBC Knowledge in New Zealand; and is responsible for the distribution and promotion of BBC World News which transmits in both countries. In August 2014 it will launch a new premium channel BBC First, showcasing premiere drama and comedy on the Foxtel platform in Australia. BBC Worldwide ANZ distributes great British content from the BBC and other producers to all free-to-air and most subscription channels in Australia and New Zealand. It works with partners to bring BBC Worldwide DVDs, magazines, digital apps, innovative products and live events to the local market, as well as offering advertising opportunities for the BBC's world renowned bbc.com news site and lonelyplanet.com. Australia is the most successful territory for the global BBC iPlayer.
