KARL HOWMAN SET TO JOIN EASTENDERS

Karl Howman is set to join EastEnders later this year. Bosses are keeping tight lipped about who Karl is playing and what is in store for his character but they have teased that from the moment he arrives on screen, he is set to cause a stir for a few residents of Walford.

EastEnders teased "Since the moment Karl arrived, it was like he has been here for years. There is a lot in store for his character; he's playing a loveable rogue but there seems to be a lot more than meets the eye."

Speaking about joining EastEnders Karl said "It is an honour to have joined such an iconic show as EastEnders and I have received such a lovely welcome from all involved. They are truly one big family with a work ethic to be in awe of. The twists and turns, character and plots that are coming make it all the more exciting for me."

Dominic Treadwell-Collins, Executive Producer said "We have been trying to get the brilliant Karl Howman to join EastEnders for a very long time - and it's fantastic that it's finally happened. An authentic Londoner with grit, sparkle and a touch of danger, Karl is the perfect fit for this new character, whose appearance on the Square will open old wounds and reignite old passions..."

EastEnders* premieres on UKTV at 6.15pm every Monday to Thursday.
