A Jubilee Tribute to The Queen by the Prince of Wales*
to screen for the first time in Australia on UKTV
Tuesday June 19 at 7:30pm, Encore Sunday June 24 at 6:00pm

In a late addition to the schedule, the revealing documentary A Jubilee Tribute to The Queen by the Prince of Wales has been confirmed to premiere on UKTV next Tuesday June 19 at 7:30pm with an encore screening on Sunday June 24 at 6:00pm.

Recently broadcast in the UK as part of The Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations, this is the first time the documentary has screened in Australia and features a personal tribute to Her Majesty the Queen by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Through previously-unseen photographs and cine films from Her Majesty's private collection - many of them shot by the Queen herself - the prince reflects on various public events and private family moments during the sixty years of the Queen's reign. In some cases, the Prince himself is seeing the footage for the first time.

The Prince is filmed in the private quarters of Windsor Castle and Balmoral, as well as at Buckingham Palace and Highgrove.

The documentary made news headlines around the world when it premiered in Britain earlier this month with audiences revelling in the never before seen royal images.

"They are moments of simple joy, showing a young family at play and providing a touching insight into the warmth that infused the childhood of Prince Charles and Princess Anne" commented The Daily Mail.

A Jubilee Tribute to The Queen by the Prince of Wales will premiere Tuesday June 19 at 7:30pm on UKTV with an encore screening on Sunday June 24 at 6:00pm.

The documentary is a fitting inclusion to London Calling, a BBC Worldwide global programming event celebrating the city of 2012, screening on UKTV and BBC Knowledge. Across all plays on UKTV/UKTV+2, The Queen's Diamond Jubilee events- The Thames Pageant and the Thanksgiving Service and Procession - reached 1.06 million people in STV homes.*
