A DOCTOR WHO CHRISTMAS FOR WESTFIELD PENRITH

Just in time for Christmas, BBC Worldwide Australia & New Zealand are pleased to announce that a Doctor Who pop-up shop will open on Saturday 7 December at Westfield Penrith as part of their SUPER Saturday festivities.

Featuring a range of gifts and apparel, the store offers shoppers great Christmas gift ideas and stocking fillers including a selection of men's t-shirts, tea towels, notebooks, mugs and teapots from the Doctor Who home range, women's apparel from US fan girl designers Her Universe as well as the DVD of the 50th Anniversary special episode The Day of the Doctor.

To celebrate the store opening at 9am on Saturday 7 December, fans are invited to dress up as their favourite Doctor Who character with a small gift given to the first 30 fans to arrive in costume. The pop-up shop will be open until the end of December and is located on Level 2/585 High Street, Penrith.

The Penrith pop-up shop is the fourth of its kind and follows on from the overwhelming success of the Doctor Who pop-up shops in Newtown, Brisbane and Melbourne earlier this year.

And to add further excitement to the festive season, The Doctor Who Christmas special is due to air in December on ABC1, and will feature Peter Capaldi's first appearance as the new Doctor.

'Following on from all activity surrounding the 50th Anniversary we are delighted to be teaming up with Westfield to offer fans, aspiring Time Lords and Christmas shoppers the chance to fill their stockings with all things Doctor Who,' said Rachael Hammond, BBC Worldwide ANZ's Retail Manager.

'We're so excited for the Doctor Who pop-up shop to be coming to Westfield Penrith on Super Saturday, the 7th December. It's just one of the many fun activities we're offering shoppers and their families to enjoy on one of the biggest shopping days of the year,' said Paul Stonebridge, Westfield Penrith Centre Manager.
