TOP GEAR MOVES TO A NEW CHANNEL ON FOXTEL

Fans of Top Gear will still be able to get their fix on Foxtel with the much-loved motoring show moving to UKTV. Ten series will also be available to stream On-Demand on Foxtel.

With BBC Knowledge making way for BBC Earth from October 10, viewers can continue to enjoy existing episodes of Top Gear in a new weekly slot on UKTV from 15th October. The series will kick off on the channel with a selection of the ever-popular specials which see the presenters take on challenges across the Middle East and Patagonia.

A comprehensive catalogue of ten of the recent series (Series 16-25) will be available to stream for Foxtel subscribers On Demand via internet connected iQ3 and iQ4 boxes, on devices with Foxtel Go, and via Foxtel Now.

-Ends-

NOTES TO EDITORS

The iQ4 is Foxtel's most advanced streaming set top box, designed with smarter features to make finding and streaming your Foxtel favourites easier than ever, while also delivering Foxtel's dedicated 4K channel to subscribers with a compatible 4K TV.

About BBC Studios

BBC Studios, a global content company with British creativity at its heart, is a commercial subsidiary of the BBC Group. Formed in April 2018 by the merger of BBC Worldwide and BBC Studios, it spans content financing, development, production, sales, branded services and ancillaries. BBC Studios' award-winning British programmes are internationally recognised across a broad range of genres and specialisms. It has offices in 22 markets globally, including six production bases in the UK and production bases and partnerships in a further nine countries around the world. The company, which makes 2500 hours of content a year, is a champion for British creativity around the world and a committed partner for the UK's independent sector. BBC Studios has revenue of £1.4bn, and returns around £200m to the BBC Group annually, complementing the BBC's licence fee and enhancing programmes for UK audiences.
